An Howard Schubert and Jace Andrew Hill were united in marriage August 27, 2011 at 7 p.m. at the First Methodist Church in West Point, Mississippi.

The double ring ceremony was officiated by Rev. Richard Payne Wiman and Rev. Edward Harris Bond. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas William Bond and the granddaughter of Mrs. James Edward Howard and the late Mr. Howard and Mr. and Mrs. John David Schubert.

Mr. Hill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tatum Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Howard Hill of Meridian. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Earl Hill, senior and the late Mr. and Mrs. Alvis Earl Wedgworth.

Nupital music was provided by Polly Hunter Grimes, organist; Terri Lauren Blissard, pianist; Marinelle Schubert Broadway, harpist; Austin Kent Sorey, pianist; Laura Bond Sorey, soloist; and James Strickland Miller, soloist. Program attendants were Cadi Denise Stigler Thompson and Carley Houpt Klaus.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Monique Lhuillier gown of ivory re-embroidered Alencon lace over charmeuse. The sheath gown featured a Juliet neckline and a deep keyhole back with a godet skirt that drifted into a chapel train. She wore her mother's illusion veil edged in beaded re-embroidered Alencon lace. Her pearl and cameo earrings were designed by the bride using cameos made in Italy that were a gift from her mother. The bride's bouquet of cascading Heiress, Amelia, and Vendela roses interspersed with white hydrangeas, stock, and southern smilax was tied together by her grandmother's handkerchief, which was handmade, and hand embroidered.

A family heirloom sixpence was borrowed from the bride's aunt and worn in her shoe.

Attending the bride as maids of honor were Pamela Marie Campbell and Carmen Marie Thompson. Bridesmaids were Mary Frances Anthony, Miriam Griffin Bond, Mary Elizabeth Broadway, Mary Frances Faucette, Sallie Marie Hollister, Rachel Anne Lokey, Elizabeth Brooks McCrory, Kathleen Dubois Pigg, Alexander Claire Schubert, Jessica Baker Stubbs, and Katherine Mackenzie Youngblood. Miss Layton Cathryn Wedgworth served as flower girl. The bridesmaids wore Sahara crinkle gowns with tiered cross-draped strapless bodices and softly gathered skirts. They each carried a French bunch of Sahara and jade roses, green hydrangea, and hypericum berries.

The bridegroom's brother, Dustin Joseph Hill, served as best man. Groomsmen were Richmond Lavern Alexander, IV, Jay Richard Barry, Joshua Harris Bond, Thomas Fouche' Bond, William Fraley Bond, William Robert Carter, Andrew Michael Degener, Joseph Leland Harrison, William Wilson Kahlmus, John Monroe Mayfield, junior, William Winston Powell, and David Eric Williams.
