Mr. and Mrs. Edward Collins and their beautiful children would like to thank you for being with them on Saturday, April 21, 2012, to witness and observe them as they became united as one.
The glowing bride, Carolyn, graced the flower covered aisle in a Pearl Ivory Satin Angelo Collection bridal gown with re-embroidered lace, pearl and crystal beading with a Basque waistline.
Her accessories included: a four strand pearl necklace with pearl drop earrings and a silver and pearl covered tiara.
Edward, Carolyn's groom and love of her heart, stood with a heartfelt smile in his ivory double breasted tux with champagne swirl vest and matching tie.
A special thanks to our mother Spelma Trotter for her love and support, our children, Stanley, Candace and Edrielle along with our sisters and brothers for making this day most memorable.
To Mrs. Mildred Brown, La De Corer and Mrs. Truvander Kennedy, we would like to especially thank you for the breathtaking decor which added a romantic touch of classic elegance and glamour to the L. T. Miller Center. Without the following, our day would not have been complete. We love you.
