Mr. and Mrs. Michael Mosley and Mr. Van Coleman of Yazoo City announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Anna Kathleen Coleman, to Justin Keith Panter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Wallis of Biloxi and Mr. David Panter of Moss Point.

The bride-elect is the granddaughter of Mrs. Grace James, Mr. Oliver Callihan and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Coleman, all of Yazoo City, and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Mosley of Dewey, Ariz.

She received a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from the Mississippi University for Women and a Master's degree in Anesthesia from the University of Tennessee Health Science Center. She also attended Mississippi State University.

She is a Chi-Omega Alum and was selected as student registered nurse anesthesiologist of the year in 2011.

She is currently employed as a certified registered nurse anesthetist with Anesthesiologists Associated in Birmingham, Ala.

The prospective groom is the grandson of Mrs. Betty Myers and the late Mr. Jimmy Myers of Moss Point and Mr. and Mrs. James Wallis of Biloxi.

He received a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from the University of South Alabama.

He is currently employed as district manager of Aortic Intervention with Cook Medical in Birmingham, Ala.

The couple will be married on June 1, 2012 at 7:30 p.m. in New Orleans at Southern Oaks Plantation. Rev. Danny Panter will officiate the double ring ceremony.

A reception will follow at Southern Oaks Plantation.