The 28th annual Yazoo County Wildlife Banquet is set for March 3 at 4:30 p.m. at McCoy Elementary.

Proceeds from the live auction will benefit Catch A Dream Foundation and Blair E. Batson Hospital for Children.

This year's program will feature Yazoo County resident Austin Turner, who participated in a Catch-A-Dream trip to the foothills of the Missouri Ozark Mountains at Little Flat Creek Ranch. On June 30, 2009 Turner was told that he had a tumor believed to be cancer. Since that time he has had 11 months of intense chemotherapy, 25 radiation treatments, over 50 blood transfusions, over 30 platelet transfusions and two major surgeries.

Austin has adopted Jeremiah 29:11 as his statement of faith.
